

Garden Party

G D G/ A/ D D
D

I went to a garden party,

D G
to reminisce with my old friends

D
A chance to share old memories

G/ A/ D
and play our songs a-gain.

D G
When I got to the garden party,

D G
they all knew my name,

D
But no one recognised me,

G/ A/ D
I didn't look the same.

D G/ A/ D
But it's all right now.

G/ A/ D
I learned my lesson well.

G D
You see you can't please everyone,

G/ A/ D
so you got to please your-self.

D G
People came from miles around.

D G
Everyone was there.

D
Yoko brought her walrus.

G/ A/ D
There was magic in the air.

D G
And over in the corner,

D G
much to my surprise,

D
Mr Hughes hid in Dylan's shoes

G/ A/ D
wearing his dis-guise.

D G/ A/ D
But it's all right now.

G/ A/ D
I learned my lesson well.

G D
You see you can't please everyone,

G/ A/ D
so you got to please your-self.

G/ A/ D G/ A/ D
Lot da da, lot a da da da

G D G/ A/ D

D G
I played them all the old songs,

D G
I thought that's why they came.

D
But No one heard the music.

G/ A/ D
We didn't look the same.

D G
I said hello to 'Mary Lou',

D G
she belongs to me.

D
When I sang a song about a honky tonk,

G/ A/ D
it was time to leave.

D G/ A/ D
But it's all right now.

G/ A/ D
I learned my lesson well.

G D
You see you can't please everyone,

G/ A/ D
so you got to please your-self.

G/ A/ D G/ A/ D
Lot da da, lot a da da da

G D G/ A/ D

D G
Someone opened up the closet door

D G
and out stepped Johnny B Goode,

D
Playing guitar like a ringin' a bell

G/ A/ D
and lookin' like he should.

D G
If you gotta play at garden parties,

D G
I wish you a lot of luck

D
But if memories are all I sang,

G/ A/ D
I'd rather drive a truck.

D G/ A/ D
But it's all right now.

G/ A/ D
I learned my lesson well.

G D
You see you can't please everyone,

G/ A/ D D↓
so you got to please your-self
